12 describe his mercy,
and one his justice.
This is our God.

Why does God not tire of forgiving us?

“Because he is God, because he is mercy, and because mercy is the first attribute of God. The name of God is mercy.”

- Pope Francis, The Name of God is Mercy, pg. 85

“Jesus invites every one of us, through Thomas, to touch not only his wounds, but also the wounds of others and our own wounds, especially those that can make us hate others and ourselves and that can be a sign of separation and division. These wounds will be transformed into a sign of forgiveness through the love of Jesus and will gather people in love. These wounds reveal that we need one another. These wounds are the place of mutual compassion, of mutual sharing, and of thanksgiving.”

· Jean Vanier, Acceder al Ministerio de Jesús a través del Evangelio de Juan, pg. 353 (2005)
